Concur on your smartphone – travel simplified

Easy online travel booking

From one screen, book local and international flights, rental car, hotel and rail reservations guided by your organization's policies.

Broad travel inventory

Concur's technology is independent of any travel agency or GDS. Plus, Concur maintains exclusive and direct vendor partnerships, enabling the delivery of a broad selection of inventory and services otherwise unavailable through traditional travel programs. This allows Concur to further help organizations streamline and drive costs out of their business.

Electronic receipts

After travel, participating suppliers — including many of the world's major airline carriers, hotel chains and rental car companies — automatically deliver complete electronic folio data in the form of e-receipts directly into a traveler's Concur expense report.

All travel booking information is matched with credit card charges and electronic receipts to create a secure system of checks and balances for your company's spending.

Reduced travel booking fees

Easy-to-use tools drive adoption, which reduces program leakage and reliance on travel agent-assisted reservations.

This can significantly cut fees associated with booking travel by as much as 79% per booking transaction.*

Increased visibility through analysis and reporting

Extensive reporting and analytics make it easy to capture, consolidate and present travel spend data. Managers can drive down costs with time-sensitive information to conduct spending analyses and forecasts while leveraging negotiated discounts.
