

When you look at managing spending, are you getting the whole picture?

To manage every dollar that goes out the door of a small or mid-size business—to truly get every bit of value out of your budget—you need crystal-clear visibility, confidence in your compliance and an entirely new level of efficiency.

Making spending (and control) simple.

- Eliminate the need for paper receipts or emailed invoices and the waiting that goes with them.
- Give your accounting team one system, rather than random ledgers and spreadsheets.
- Get automatic audits, so you know everything is as it should be.
- Trim reimbursement times, so people get paid faster.

Seeing everything you spend.

- Strengthen your negotiating power and get you're the deals you bargained for.
- Track your spending overall and on specific projects to gauge ROI.
- Simplify your corporate card and finance systems.

Staying on the right side of the rules.

- Know which regulations to follow and be certain they're actually followed.
- Let your accountants be accountants, not “enforcers.”
- Eliminate compliance mistakes and keep the process moving.
