

The support you need, when you need it

User Support Desk from Concur provides support and resources for your employees

We understand you want to do everything in your power to support your users. But providing ongoing support can be a resource- and time-intensive commitment that can quickly dominate the workday for you and your team. User Support Desk gives your employees access to dedicated, 24/7 support from knowledgeable Concur experts. They'll get the answers they need right away, which results in higher compliance, better adoption, more productivity and a solution that satisfies everyone.

With User Support Desk, Concur acts as the first point of contact via phone, email, UI link, online Knowledge Base or even chat (U.S. only). The Concur representatives are familiar with your specific system configuration and capabilities built around your corporate policies and rules. They are also familiar with the supported mobile platforms used by your employees.

Why User Support Desk?

-  Save time for you and your administrators.
-  Increase employee satisfaction.
-  Receive expert guidance.
-  Available 24/7.
-  Assistance available in multiple languages.

Support directly to your employees

Say goodbye to time-consuming administrative tasks and get back to focusing on what really matters.

Prompt assistance

In the event that a case must be logged, your Concur service provider will document the issue, provide updates and work with other teams across Concur until your issue is resolved.

Knowledgeable resources

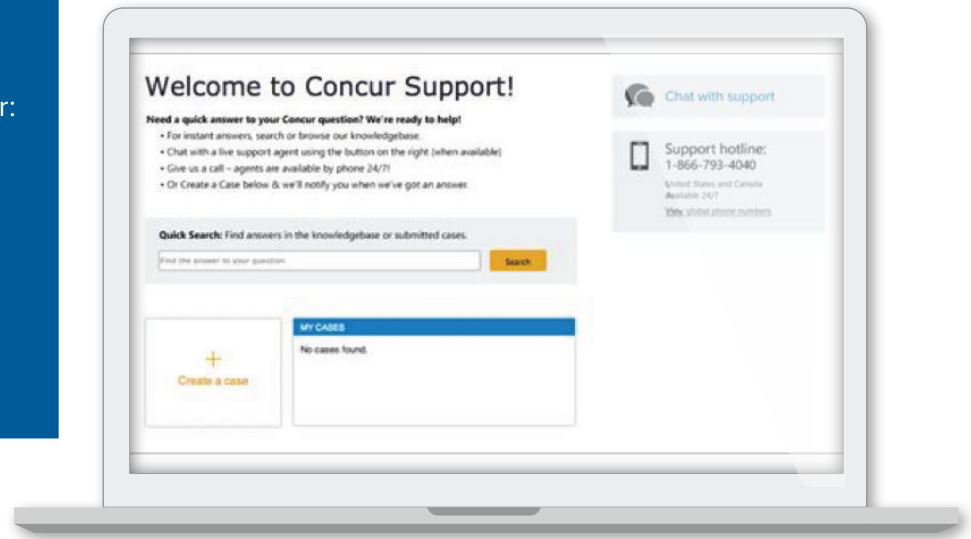

User Support Desk provides direct access to Concur consultants who are familiar with your solution and configuration. You'll receive the help you need to support everything from your company's business processes to your administrative and technical requirements.
